

GOLF NOTES - MARCH 2022

Welcome back for season 2022 at the Cuballing Golf Club. So much has happened and the season hasn't even started yet.

The new Committee has met to discuss the 2022, and there is plenty on the horizon. Captain Lindsay has a jam-packed fixture locked and loaded ready for any golfing fanatic to get their fix. This year along with our usual array of our Open Weekend & FFF's Day the Club will also host the Upper Great Southern Golf Associations Mixed Championship which is scheduled to be held on Sunday 19th June. Fingers crossed the rain continues to fall and we can present the course in immaculate condition for this event.

Speaking of the course, Saturday the 26th March saw our main Busy Bee prior to the start of the golf season. The main project this year was to renovate all the Men's Tee Boxes. Anyone who has ventured out to the course, especially in the summer months would know that the tee boxes were awfully hard and, required quite an amount of force to get a tee in the ground, and when you could get your tee in the ground you usually found yourself standing above or below the ball on uneven ground. That needed to change, so with a plan in place we aimed to start early and attempted to complete all 18 Tee Boxes in one day... easy right?

As with any project the first few hours are always the slowest, we eventually found a flow that worked and smashed them all out by 5.30pm. Not bad for a full day's work. A BIG thankyou must go to David Shanks who donated his time and Bobcat which made the day a lot easier and eliminated many shovels. Also, to Morty for his loader skills and Bevan George for carting dirt around the course to where it was needed. Thanks also to everyone that came out and helped in any other capacity on the day. From cleaning the club house, to clearing loose branches and everything in between, it was an exceptional day.

With all the incredible work that occurred on the Tee Boxes we politely request that anyone who comes out the course for a hit please tee off in front of the Tee Box for the time being whilst these new boxes get established ready for use sometime later in the year.

We kick off the 2022 season on the Saturday 23rd April with the 3 Person Ambrose, ANZAC Cup. Tee Off from 1.30pm for 14 Holes. Following this there will be a BBQ Tea. Everyone is welcome, even if you don't have a Handicap come along, have a wack and some fun.

It's shaping up to be another great season at Cuballing and we can't wait to get it underway. If you are interested in getting into golf or becoming a member at the Cuballing Golf Club, please feel free to get in contact with us:
